

Suits for Real Sizzling Weather

The last few days has shown just how necessary Hot Weather Clothing is to Memphis Men.

Three months of Summer still remain, so no use delaying.

Especially when such a smart variety of fabrics and models are offered in these cool clothes. Select now and get the advantage of every hot day's wear, and be comfortable.

Tropical worsteds, Palm Beach, mohair, linen, shantung and poplin silks, in two-piece models.

Also some very light weight woolen Suits with Vests.

Why Men Buy "BOYDEN" Oxfords

From each hide only two pairs of these Oxfords are made.

The Soles are overweight, of tough oak tanned leather. Solid Leather counters are used to retain shape and fit.

Linings are the best obtainable.

Shoes built to such a standard of quality naturally prove best in the long run.

Boyden Oxfords are $12 and $14.

We have other good makes at $7.50 to $10.

CLAIMED SALLY GOODIN AS CLOSE RELATIVE

"Bought a piece of pie, Bought a piece of pudding, Gave it all away To see Sally Goodin." The words to this old song of the Tennessee district in East Tennessee flitted through the mind of Joe Cole, court sergeant, Wednesday, when a negro named Will Goodin faced the city court on a charge of disorderly conduct. Will may have partaken of a wee bit too much mountain dew, thought Cole, as Judge L. T. Fitzhugh questioned the defendant. The case was not at all aggravated, but Cole took up the role of cross-questioner. "Are you related to Sally Goodin?" he asked Will. "Yassuh, cap'n, das my mamma," replied Will. "Go ahead, Will," put in Judge Fitzhugh. "We must keep untarnished the memories of our heroes and heroines of song and story."

PROGRAM IS ARRANGED FOR JOHN GASTON DAY

Hundreds of children from all parts of the city are expected to participate in the observance of John Gaston day, Thursday, when appropriate exercises will be held in Gaston Park. A program which will begin at 2 and continue until 7 o'clock has been outlined by the committee of which Harry H. Litty is chairman. The celebration is under the auspices of the Memphis recreation committee. The Boy Scouts will start the program at 2 o'clock with a flag raising, following which will be athletic contests at 2:30 o'clock, in which all playground children of the city are to participate. At 4:30 a miniature floral parade will be held and Miss Lynn Black will be the leader. Community dances will be held for an hour and talks will be made by Mayor Montpelier, Mr. Litty, C. W. Miller, Judge James Watson, Hardwig Pores and others.

CAPT. WALSH SENDS WAR TROPHIES TO C. OF C.

A box of war souvenirs has been received from Capt. J. M. Walsh by the Chamber of Commerce. The box was shipped from Havre, and is supposed to contain weapons and bits of accoutrements picked up in the fields of battle. Owing to the excessive formalities connected with the delivery of such shipments by the customs office it probably will be Thursday before the box comes into possession of the chamber.

ASKS HABEAS CORPUS WHEN BONDSMEN FAIL

Deserted by Dave Ostrich and H. M. Hiler, his bondsmen, E. G. Yarbrough, under sentence for six months in the workhouse on a charge of violating the liquor law, Wednesday petitioned Judge Guthrie to grant him a writ of habeas corpus, declaring that he was not bound to surrender a person under bond to the criminal court after an appeal has been perfected to the supreme court.

TWO GARAGES WILL BE BUILT ON UNION

Memphis is to have one of the handsomest garages and display rooms in the South, Wednesday P. D. Thomas & Sons, contractors, purchased a permit from the office of Dan C. Newton, building superintendent, to erect for the H. A. White Auto company at Union avenue and Somerville street a two-story brick and reinforced concrete garage and show room to cost approximately $40,000. The same contractors took out a permit to erect for E. M. and D. H. Crump a two-story brick and concrete garage and display room at Union avenue and East street to cost $35,000.

KYSER ON RETURN IS SILENT ON BOOZE PROBE

W. D. Kyser, district attorney, returned Wednesday from Cincinnati, where he presented the government side of a number of appeals from convictions in district court here to the appellate court in that city. All the appeals except that of Tom Bishop were heard Monday. Bishop's appeal on a charge of violating the road amendment was heard Tuesday. A. B. Galloway represented the defendant. Although possible resumption of the whiskey inquiry was reported to be the program on Mr. Kyser's return, the district attorney would not be quoted as to the plan of campaign laid out to stop whiskey selling in Memphis.

PISTOL PLAYS PART IN DISPUTE OVER GASOLINE

It is doubtful whether the price of gasoline will be affected because of difficulty between two oil magnates in Memphis Wednesday morning. But W. M. Lamplsey, manager of the Refining company filling station No. 2, Union avenue and East street, was jailed on a charge of assault with a pistol, following the trouble. Lamplsey charged that K. J. Kimball, driver of the delivery truck for the oil company, was trying to do him out of a bit of gasoline when the tank was filled. Kimball's story to Capt. K. J. Kehoe at police headquarters: Emergency Policemen Brunner and Taylor arrested Lamplsey.

MRS. LINGUA LOSES WAGONLOAD OF CHICKENS

There was a dearth of happy cooking when Mrs. Lingua, 1023 Via, slipped stepped into the back yard Wednesday morning to feed her chickens. She began counting combs. Then she telephoned to Sgt. Joe Cole at police headquarters. Total casualties in the henhouse, Mrs. Lingua reported, were 50 chickens "missing in action." Twenty were of frying size, 25 were smaller and 15 were fully matured Plymouth Rock hens, with their wings crumpled. Wagon tracks in the alley told the sorrowful way of the hidden depredation.

RECOVERS $400 RING.

W. M. Hardwick, linotype operator, doesn't feel nearly so disheartened as he did Saturday night, after he had been held up at McLemore avenue and Latham street, and robbed of $45 in cash and a 1400 diamond ring. Detective Pat Heran Wednesday recovered the diamond ring. It had been sold by the footpad to a South Main street merchant for $12. The merchant, believing the ring to be a good one, telephoned to detective headquarters, and Heran answered the call. He obtained a good description of the highwayman.

EXCUSE FAILED: FINED.

Arthur Carroll, negro, gave the old B. O. B. excuse when questioned in city court Wednesday morning regarding the locality in which he purchased eight plates of whiskey which later was found under his back porch by Police Sgt. E. O. Haynes. But the B. O. B. (Bought on Beale) excuse didn't go with Judge L. T. Fitzhugh. "Twenty-five dollars for the city and held for the state," was the fate he dealt to Arthur, who resides at 699 Woods avenue.

BUSY ON TEXTBOOKS.

Miss Charl G. Williams, who has the distinction of being the first woman in Tennessee to be a member of the state textbook commission, is in the city meeting with the committee. She will return to Memphis Friday.

INFERIOR LIQUOR MADE THEM FEEL STRONG

Harry Houston and W. E. Abernathy will hesitate next time before taking aboard more of the brand of "skull crack" booze which is being peddled in Memphis.

Houston was fined $5 on a drunk charge and $10 on a disorderly charge, and Abernathy $10 on the latter charge in city court Wednesday morning on testimony of Traffic Policeman Ledbetter that they had taken charge of the house of Virgie Patterson on Mulberry street. A next-door neighbor also told Judge L. T. Fitzhugh that the pair had telephoned her they were going to wreck her house.

"We were just drinking, Judge," was the only excuse Houston could offer for their conduct. Both men are painters.
